Growth plans, average unit volumes, rebranding, redesigns and much more are on the agenda at the Franchise Times Finance & Growth Conference.

MINNEAPOLIS—Huckleberry's (Breakfast & Lunch) is among the high caliber c-suite presenters at the May 6-8, 2019 Finance & Growth Conference in Las Vegas.

The Finance & Growth Conference connects franchisors, franchisees, lenders and investors in a professional business and networking setting. Attendees get an inside look at the development plans of 75-plus growing franchise brands and a unique opportunity to meet one-on-one with the CEOs and CFOs of these brands to gather additional information, discover new ideas and trends in the franchise business and make deals.

“It is the franchise investment conference of the year: This is an excellent opportunity for brands to present their investment case to franchisees, private equity, the lending community and other companies that want to thoroughly understand the growth plans of these businesses,” said Mary Jo Larson, publisher of Franchise Times. “The conference has become the preeminent franchise event for networking, as the financial community is able to network with these CEOs one on one, and other brands that are in attendance. Deals start here.”

Huckleberry's (Breakfast & Lunch) is delighted to be one of the companies presenting and we invite you to join us at the conference May 6-8, 2019.

If you are able to attend, simply register on the Franchise Times conference website. The fee is only $595 for operators (franchisee, franchisor, prospective franchisee) or $995 for all others.

We hope to see you there.
